Why Vote for Chauncey Goss?

- A remarkable record of public service, knowledge of and appreciation for Sanibel Island.
- A set of values that are well-suited to preserving the sanctuary character of this barrier island community.
- Grew up on Sanibel.
- Learned public service and leadership from his father, Porter Goss, Sanibel's first mayor.
- Lives on Sanibel with his wife, Allison, and their 3 sons.
- Advises clients on fiscal policy and budgeting.
- A decade of experience working for the Pentagon, the President, and the Congress.
- BA, Area Studies & Environment Rollins College, FL
- MA, Public Policy, Georgetown University, DC

Strong relationships with Lee County government leaders:

- Lee County Coastal Advisory Council
- Lee County Historic Preservation Board
- Lee County Parks and Recreation advisory committee

Service on the following Sanibel or Florida Boards:

- SCCF
- United Way of Lee County
- Sanibel Community Association
- Ding Darling Wildlife Society

- Florida Trust for Historic Preservation
- Florida Gulf Coast University Foundation
- Lee Coast Chapter of MOAA Foundation
- Vice Chair Canterbury School Trustees

His campaign platform is a simple one: Keeping Sanibel a wonderful place to live and visit. He believes the top Sanibel issues that Council must deal with are:

- Water quality
- Redevelopment
- Proposed civic core
- Traffic

COTI was founded in 1975 by those who helped Sanibel incorporate as an independent, self-governing city within Lee County. Guided by the mission of those founders, we seek to ensure the continuity of good local government, to protect the environment, and to preserve the sanctuary character of our barrier island community.
